

Night Sledding

Travel from Interlaken high into the Swiss Alps, take in the starlit winter panorama and then zip down the 1 hour long sled run. Along the way the trail winds through the woods, crosses alpine meadows and passes majestic frozen waterfalls. The sled run finishes at a small local restaurant where we enjoy an optional traditional Swiss cheese fondue dinner.

Quick facts

A70

Recommended for	Everyone
What's included	Professional guides, pick up / drop off service, sled, transport, cable car ticket
What to bring	Warm winter clothing, gloves, ski pants and jacket, warm shoes
Requirements	Max weight 125 kg (275 lbs.) Min age 10 Children under 12 with adult supervision
Duration	3.5 hours including transport and dinner, 2.5 hours without dinner. 1 hour sledding
Season	Late November - Early April, depending on snowfall
Departures	18:30 / 19:00
Capacities	40 - 50 seats per departure
Prices	Single Seat CHF 79.00 (CHF 105.00 with dinner) Group 10+ CHF 71.00 (CHF 94.00 with dinner) Trekking shoes CHF 10.00 (from size EU 36)

Good to know

- Warm winter clothing is available to rent before the trip
- The dinner is traditional Swiss winter meal, Alpine Macaroni or similar
- 1 drink is included in the meal
- A traditional Cheese fondue meal is available for groups
- The track is unlit but participants will see well due to the white snow
- Each guests is given a flashing light on a lanyard
- There is a short training at the start and the guide then leads the group down the sled track from the front
- Frequent stops are made to regroup on the way down
- 4.6 km sled track